Where in the World is Lacho Barradas?

The first liar doesn't stand a chance around when they tell their travel stories. If you start your story with "I got up at 4am" someone near will have gotten up at 3AM and some else traveled all night.

No story I have heard so far beats the saga of the 22 year old Lacho "Cheese" Barradas from Madison Heights, Michigan. This will probably be his last attempt to take a bus to Reno!

Lacho left the safety net of his home board at Jason Papa's Madison Park Bowl to try his hand as a "3" in the big show. He left Michigan at 3PM Wednesday, October 25th with the intention of playing in the 6 person draft event.

He traveled first to Chicago and then to Kansas City, MO. From there they headed towards Denver and here is where the trouble began. An hour out of Denver they turned back to Kansas City because of the snow and bad roads. He spent 14 hours in KC before once again heading to Denver. From Denver the route went to Salt Lake City, Utah and finally to Reno.

A mere 76.5 hours from beginning to end and Lacho arrives in Reno at 7:30PM on Saturday night. He's already a winner!
