The Hammer

One of the things you deal with in the publishing trade is that you're always a month ahead of the rest of the world. Beating deadlines means that we're geared to Christmas while everyone else is celebrating Thanksgiving.

This is the Christmas issue of The Board Talk, but we're going to slam on the brakes of the time machine temporarily because we've got an awful lot to be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day. We're thankful, most of all, that this publication is making its mark in The World of Shuffleboard (see Dick Gorman's salute in Letters on page 2) and that, after four years of struggle, it's paying its own way now.

George is particularly thankful, as we write this, that he had the opportunity to get to know many of the "citizens" of The World of Shuffleboard who, before his trip to California, Colorado, Wyoming and Oklahoma, had only been names on our mailing list, voices on the phone, or signatures at the end of a letter to the editor. It was a great experience for him.

Donna is thankful for the hospitality shown to the fellow she's grown pretty attached to during the past 37 years, by our good friends, Al and Von Stewart of California and Bill and Rozana Melton of Oklahoma; Norm Nuwash, host of the Colorado Open at Bliner's Sports Bar; Doc and Megen Khan of Cheyenne, who took him in and fed him well; homestaters Jimmy the Cop and One-Armed John who kept him company for part of the long journey; and Beef in Indiana who covered his cold head with a warm cap on the way home.

We're thankful, too, for subscribers and advertisers who go beyond their monetary investments to provide ideas and support to help us be the official "voice" of shuffleboard.

For example, our aerospace subscriber from Cheyenne, Doc Khan, suggested that we welcome our new subscribers each month. Thanks, Doc, for the great idea! A warm welcome from The World of Shuffleboard to:

Todd/Schulte Win Lafayette Inn Tourney

Scratch Todd of Harrington and Marion Schulte of Dover teamed up to capture first place in the Fall Tournament at the Lafayette Inn, Rising Sun, Maryland, on Oct. 31-Nov. 2. Twenty-six teams from five states participated with prizes of over $1,600 awarded to the first six teams.

In second place were Dallas Hayman, Dover, and Don Casula, Newark, with Chuck King, Dover, and John Lucas, Millington, Md., in third place. Other winners were: Rick Niblett and Jim Sommers of Salisbury, Md., 4th; Vin Killen and Rocky Rybicki of Wilmington, Del., 5th; and George Chamberlin, Perryville, Md., and Jim McDaniel, Street, Md., 6th.

Chambers/Fleishman Win Ohio Tourney

Winners of the doubles tournament at Mann's Bar, Evansport, Ohio, on Nov. 8 were Mark Chambers, Gosen, Ind.; and PeeWee Fleishman, Albion, Ind. Jeanette Dangler and Duane Darrow of Bryan, Ohio, came in second place.

Seventeen teams from Ohio and Indiana participated in the tourney.

Siebert/Reist Win in Indiana Tourney

A tournament held recently at the First and Last Stop bar in Kendallville, Ind., was won by Jerry Siebert and Wayne Reist of Lansing, Mich. Second place honors went to PeeWee Fleishman and Larry Hoffer, Indiana. In third place were Larry Creakbaum, Indianapolis, and Jim Long, Osceola, with Louie Haiman and Tom Bohner, Kendallville, in fourth place.

Twenty-two teams participated in the single elimination event. Reporter Jerry Siebert extends congratulations to Pat and Dick Cinninger for hosting the tourney and to PeeWee Fleishman for doing the auction. He suggests a 60-30-10 split instead of 60-40.

Letters to the Editor

The Northeast: An Untapped Source

The Board Talk is a very good publication and is just what shuffleboard needs. I think you have made great progress in the promotion of this fine sport and hope that readership grows.

I also think you should concentrate more on the Northeast section of the U.S. (Pa. Del., N.J., etc.). It is an untapped source of players and readers.

Good luck!

Bill Robinson, Woodlyn, Pa.

(We agree, Bill! While Delaware and Maryland are in our Top 10 subscriber states, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York are at the bottom of the list. We're publishing all the news we get from the Northeast and it's finally paying off, as evidenced by the next letter.)

Board Talk Communications: It Works!

Hats off to The Board Talk! Thanks to the newsletter, Jim Yank and his wife, Rita, read about our tournament and as a result, six teams came from Philadelphia. They joined four teams from Wilmington, Del., seven teams from the lower Delaware Eastern Shore League, a team from the Salisbury, Maryland league and eight teams from Cecil County, Md. It was the biggest tournament ever held in Cecil County.

Twenty-six teams from five states were entered in the Lafayette Inn tourney (see Tourney Talk for winners). Nelson Renzi, our host and owner of the Lafayette Inn, added money to the prizes and provided all participants with a beautiful buffet all during the tournament.

The best part of the tournament was that the East Coast players started communications with each other. We had three great days on two boards and met so many great new friends and shooters.

We are very appreciative of what communications in The Board Talk can do. To show our thanks and interest, we tried to sell subscriptions and gained eight new subscribers.

The tournament was my first as manager and I learned a lot from some great experienced shooters like Jim Yank, John Lukas, Don Casula, Rocky Rybicki, Dallas Hayman and Scratch Todd. It is hard to imagine so many people would be so willing to help.

Lafayette Inn owner Nelson Renzi says we are not done. We are going to get better and bigger and try to become a tournament leader in the Middle Atlantic states area. We will let you know as our plans develop.

If anyone wants to be on our tournament mailing list, they can send their address to me at 138 Glen Oak Rd., Wilmington, Del. 19805, or if they subscribe to The Board

Talk, it will be in there with your blessing.

Thanks again.

Dick Gorman, Wilmington, Del.

(Your letter really made our day, Dick! There's nothing we'd rather hear than testimony like yours. Communication between shuffleboard players is what The Board Talk is all about and it's good to hear that it's working well.

It's people like you out there "hustling" The Board Talk who will make it successful and we say hats off to you for those eight new subscribers from the Northeast. Two of those were shuffleboard bars and since our next "Play Your Way Across the U.S.A." network listing won't be published for another couple months, we're going to encourage readers to stop in at: Craig's Tavern, 3110 Township Line, Drexel Hill, Pa., and Rick's Place, North Salisbury Blvd., Salisbury, Md.

You might like to know, too, Dick, that you're the first tournament manager who has sent us your point standings as we suggested in our "Letter From the Editors" to help us develop the Top 20 national standings. Congratulations!

Congratulations, too, to Nelson, who evidently has established a fine reputation as a tournament host.)

From Our Friends in Canada

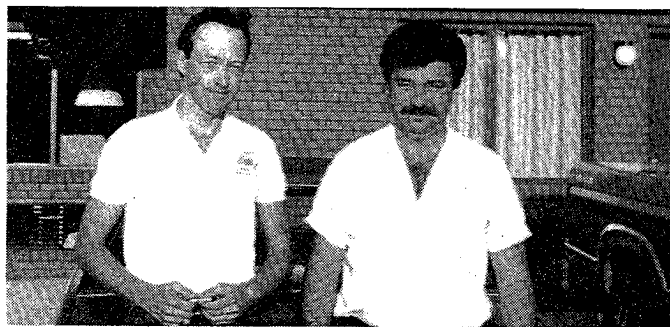

I have just come back from the Canadian championships, which were held in Milton, Ontario, about 30 miles from Toronto. Harold Schmidt won the men's singles and Harvey Groleau and Mike Jacoby won the men's doubles.

Jim the Cop (Detroit and Florida) was in Winnipeg to see our tournament and later he was in Milton, Ontario, watching our tournament and also playing some short board (14-foot).

After the tournament was over, I went on to Detroit to see the Ford Museum and also the Village next door. I really enjoyed the museum because there was lots to see. There were a few items I had never seen before.

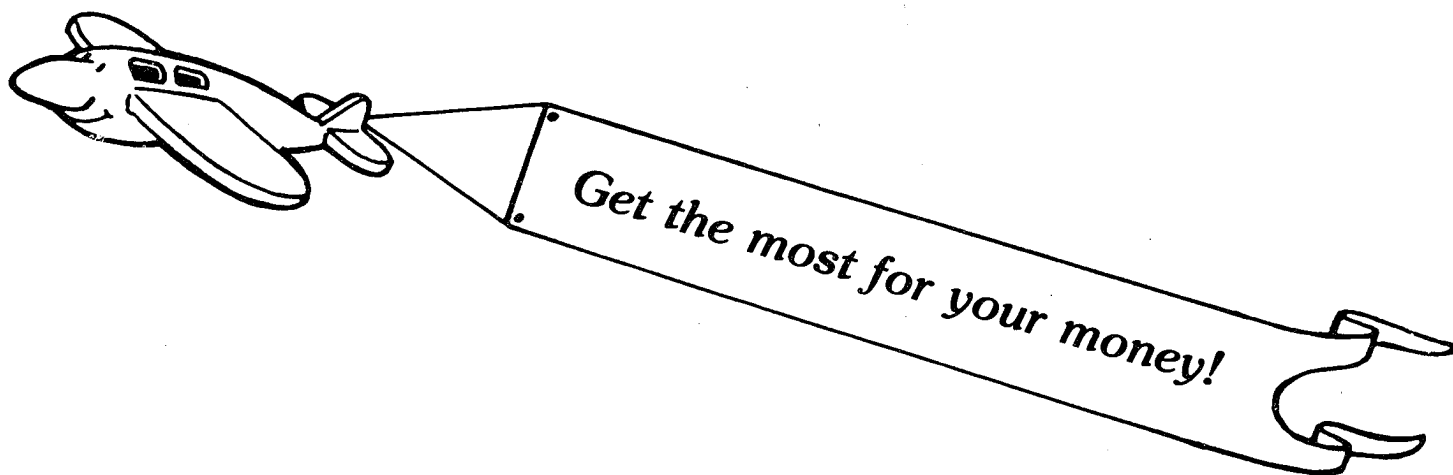

John Komadowski, Winnipeg, Manitoba

(It's always great to hear from our friends in Canada. It's nice, too, that the big winners in the Canadian championships are Board Talk subscribers!)

Mike Jacoby (left) and Harry Groleau won the men's doubles in the Canadian championships. Another Board Talk subscriber, Harold Schmidt, won the men's singles.

You could rent a plane to fly across the U.S.A. and Canada to spread the word about your upcoming tournament... a very costly method of advertising and probably not very effective. And... your target audience might miss it because they're busy reading The Board Talk.

You get the most for your advertising dollar right here!

Note: The criteria for the Top 20 does not guarantee that you will go ahead of someone merely by beating them in one tournament. You must earn that right by winning regularly and producing a better record. Bumping heads with the same players continuously also does guarantee a high rating. You must travel occasionally to tournaments where you have the opportunity to play against different players (remember, this is a two-way street).
