The Hammer

In the October issue of The Board Talk, we published two features we thought would insure player feedback (and that's what we thrive on) — Rita Yank's article on the challenges women face in The World of Shuffleboard and the Top 20 Players in the U.S.A.

Everyone we've talked to, by phone or in person, has made reference to the fact that both are common topics of conversation whenever two or more shuffleboarders get together, but nobody (to date) has submitted their opinions for publication. Maybe by the time the next issue goes to press, the shock waves will have settled and we'll get that expected reaction.

We indicated when we printed the first Top 20 that it was a place from which to start and that's what it was. It was compiled from known reputations of players and research on finishes in the top third of recent tourneys of substantial size.

From now on, the finishes in tournaments will carry the most weight with known reputations still a factor. With that first list, we also tried to spread the "glory" over our major shuffleboard states, but that will no longer be part of the criteria.

We also have to take into consideration that some players enter more tournaments than others because (1) there are more tournaments in their area than others; (2) full-time jobs and/or lack of finances prohibit them from long travel to enter tourneys.

Until A.P., UPI or USA Today starts publishing results of shuffleboard tournaments, we must rely on you as readers and reporters to help us develop a list that has credibility.

Speaking of reporters, who can report for The Board Talk? Anyone who has something to report! We'd rather get six different reports of a tournament than to get none at all.

You don't have to be a professional writer to be a reporter, but we do appreciate: (1) the date, place and address of the tourney site; (2) full names of winners, correctly spelled and printed instead of handwritten so we don't decipher your i's as e's and your o's as a's; everybody likes to see their names spelled correctly; (3) the winners' city and state. In some cases, we can check our mailing list for that information but, alas, not all winners are subscribers. In fact, if being a subscriber was a criteria for the Top 20, we'd have a few different names!

We also appreciate receiving your reports in writing. Taking results over the phone creates too many opportunities for error.

Tourney Talk

Lansing Team Wins Bourbon Tournament

J.R. Lopez and Lee McDonald of Lansing, Mich., were the big winners in the Bourbon (Ind.) Fall Tournament on Oct. 11. Bob Harris of Toledo, Ohio, and Danny Brookshire of Fairmount, Ind., took second place honors. There was a tie for third place: Jim Long and Larry Creakbaum of Indiana, and Walt VanderSloot and his partner, Vee, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Thirty-five teams participated in the annual event.

While Bobby Voorhis of Indiana didn't finish in the money, he was the winner of a drawing for a miniature shuffleboard made by Jeff Cottrell of Michigan.

Dallas Team Wins Honey Comb Tourney

The Dallas team of Billy Mays, Earl Kelly, Bob White, Joe Walker, Ed Jeffers and Dave Williams won the six-man team event at the Honey Comb's Columbus Day tournament, Oct. 10-13.

Billy Mays won the singles tournament with John McDermott of Michigan in second place and Sam Summers of Oklahoma finishing third.

John McDermott and Howard Mouton teamed up to take first place in the doubles. Billy Mays and Earl Kelly took second place honors with Bill Melton, Oklahoma, and Dave Williams of Texas in third place.

Big Crop of Winners at P.T.'s

The Columbus Day tournament at P.T.'s in Houston boasted a $20,000 pot for four events.

In the women's event, Diana Hagen captured first place, with Adele Keith in second, and Sharon Finch finishing third.

Cooperation is the Key

Those of us in the written media know all too well just how important promotion is, whether it's by participation or by support.

To George and Donna Wilber, promotion is a big part of their lives. They're making it possible for us to keep in touch with shuffleboard by publishing The Board Talk. It costs only $10 a year and, as a shuffleboarder, I thoroughly enjoy reading about what's going on all over the country.

I think what's important in putting out a publication is cooperation from players and sponsors. Players become so involved that they often forget that other people, such as George and Donna, are putting forth a lot of hard work to promote shuffleboard. I think, more than anybody, the Wilbers should come to the front of the room and take a bow. Their Board Talk manages to find its way to such places as Indiana, Ohio, Texas, Oregon, California, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma and New York, to mention a few. Their tidbits have made it possible to put Lansing on the shuffleboard map.

The Greater Lansing Shuffleboard League is strong, possibly as strong as it's ever been and that's evident by the number of tournament players from our league who win. To single out all the individual players who have made tremendous contributions to our league would be impossible because the league has been established for so many years. However, in our modern era, names like Lee McDonald, Junior Lopez, Bruce Thomison, Jerry Siebert, Roy Stein, Wayne Reist and, yes, George Wilber, have been a credit to the game. They, too, have played a major role in promotion.

Sponsorship is vital to maintain any recreation program and in shuffleboard, we've had tremendous loyalty and perhaps a player-sponsor friendship bond found in no other type of recreational sport. As a league officer and player, I tip my hat to people like Rudy and Linda Stober of Stober's Cocktail Lounge and Ray Dorin of Art's Bar & Grill, the two oldest sponsoring establishments.

Our league has grown to 14 teams for the 1986-87 season, an increase of four from the previous season. It promises to be an exciting season with the addition of new players. Best of luck and thanks!

Bob Gross, Sports Writer, Lansing State Journal
President, Greater Lansing Shuffleboard League

Delaware "Boy" Gives Maryland Boost

Hope this subscription for Wesley's in Elkton, Maryland, is in time for the listing of shuffleboard places for Play Your Way Across the U.S.A. They have a good 22-foot board and it's a good place to eat, too.

Letters to the Editor

Hurts a little for a Delaware boy to send in a Maryland subscription since you started "Who's On First?" But since most of us shoot in both Maryland and Delaware, guess it is all right. We'll keep trying to get more.

Dick Gorman, Wilmington, Del.

It's O.K., Dick, you're still closer to first than your good neighbor. We appreciate the fine support you folks out there in the East give to The Board Talk.

Lee Brady and Aron Hartness won the $100 draw partner event, with Jim Taylor and Kelly Cameron taking second place. Billy Mays and Hal St. Leger finished third.

Billy Mays won the singles tournament with Glen Davidson in second place and Dale Koteras in third.

In the bring-your-partner event, Billy Mays and Earl Kelly took first place. Howard Mouton and Rick Boyer took second place, with John McDermott and Bill Melton in third place.

Siebert/Reist Win Indiana Tournament

A tournament held at Beef's in Kendallville, Ind., on Oct. 18 was won by Jerry Siebert and Wayne Reist of Lansing, Mich. J.R. Lopez and Lee McDonald, also of Lansing, took second place, with Ed Krill and Don Geiga of Bryon, Ohio, placinh third. Fourth place went to Jim Long and Jerry Knox of Osceola, Ind. Nineteen teams participated in the tourney. Jerry Siebert extends congratulations to Gerald "Beef" Camp for hosting a quality tournament. "We're looking forward to more and bigger tournaments at Beef's," he reports.

Stagger Inn's 2nd Annual Turkey Day Tournament

The Stagger Inn, 9108 Alondra Blvd., Bellflower, Calif., will host its second annual Turkey Day Tournament on Nov. 28-30. Entry fee for the team event is $250 and $100 for the singles. Each event pays 60-30-10. The auction will start at 11 a.m. on Nov. 28 with the team event starting at noon.

The Stagger Inn will serve a free turkey dinner to players and guests on Nov. 27, so it will pay to come a day early.

For further information or to make your reservations, contact Ray Hogan, 213-866-0900. Their first annual tourney last year was a good one; this second one is sure to be even better. See ad in this issue.

St. Pat's Day Tournament of Winners at P.T.'s

P.T. of P.T.'s Shuffleboard Alley, Houston, Texas, has changed his Tournament of Winners from Feb. 20-22 to March 20-22. It will be a big $36,000 guaranteed-on-entries event, singles only. Entry fee is $1,000. Three out of five in the winner's bracket, two out of three in the loser's bracket, draw for position every round. Players cannot play two consecutive matches on same board.

The event will pay eight places: 1st, $15,000; 2nd, $7,500; 3rd, $4,500; 4th, $3,000; 5th, $2,250; 6th, $1,500; 7th, $1,250; and 8th, $1,000.

For further information, contact P.T., 713-681-3852. See ad in this issue and start making plans to participate in this big tourney.

Whoops!

In our report of the mixed doubles at Art's Bar on Sept. 13-14, we had winner Delores McDonald teamed up with her husband Lee. It was J.R. Lopez who finished first with her. Sorry, J.R.!

We also omitted the results of a singles tourney at the Labor Day event at Walt's Bar in Detroit. Winners were Jerry Siebert of Lansing in first place; John Tischler, Detroit, second place; and Cass Grubbs, Detroit, third. There were 16 entries in the event.

In the team match at Walt's, Lansing beat Detroit 5 to 3. Players on the winning team were: Jerry Siebert, Wayne Reist, Roger Holt, Roy Stein, J.R. Lopez and Lee McDonald.
