Shufflers' Notebook

Darrol Salutes Canucks

The Canadian tourney was a great success! We had 10 boards in a huge Army, Navy, Air Force Veterans Association private club, complete with very good kitchen, a bar and lounge, and three full-size snooker tables. All the people were very friendly and hospitable.

I look for this tournament to be a great success annually.

Darrol Nelson, Cheshire, Oregon

Thanks for the great photos, Darrol, and for your kind words about the Crazy Canucks tournament. We, too, expect this was just the first of yearly successes for them.

Darrol Nelson and Jim Allis, 1st and 2nd in the singles and together, number one in the doubles.

Eric Waldman and Jim Gindt, 2nd place doubles.

Rick Thanks Shuffler Coaches

I would like to express my thanks to all the people who have helped me improve my game of shuffleboard.

Most important of all, I thank my dad, Ted (Curt) Curtice. The list could go on and on, but here are just a few I personally would like to thank:

Joanie Swenson, Jay Kimble, Lou (Loose Lips) Lusero, Jim Kennedy, Chuck Kimbrough, Vern Booth, Bob Brunskill and Trader Jim Anderson.

I hope that all beginners in the game of shuffleboard can benefit from these people as I have. I enjoy playing the game, meeting the various challenges. It has helped a lot to improve my game and my attitude.

Also, I would like to thank Jack and Johnna (Mom and Dad) from the Peanut House (Bellflower) for their support and for promoting shuffleboard.

Joanie (sister), a personal thanks to you.

Thank you all very much.

Rick Curtice, Lakewood, California

The people you mention, Rick, should serve as an example to players everywhere. It is people like them, helping beginning players, who will ensure that the future of shuffleboard is bright.

Thoughts of Reno Tourney From Hospitalized Participant

Here I am the day after Thanksgiving, still in St. Joseph's Hospital, Orange, California. This is the first Thanksgiving in over 28 years that Dot and I didn't have dinner at my Mother's. Mother, age 96, passed away last July. Rather than feeling sad, I've been thinking more happy thoughts.

I recently was able to participate in The Federation's national tournament in Reno, Nevada. I am grateful to Cassie Ritz and Charley Rose, owners of the Till "2" Club in Bellflower, California. Cassie bought new shirts and also contributed $100 toward our calcutta in sponsoring my team. I also want to thank Jolene Lembke, who was so instrumental in promoting and obtaining the quality players we had participating on our Reno team. I have made the following list of items that I considered improvements over previous tournaments we have participated in.

1. Six player team on three boards was much better than 8 player format in that all players got to shoot at the same time, making each player feel more a part of their team, and match.
2. Choosing partners at the start of each match and keeping the same partner for the entire match kept the whole tournament flowing better than changing partners after each game.
3. The hotel contributing money to the pot for each event made it rewarding for all of us, even those who didn't win the event, and the hotel not only gave a special discount rate of $21 per person, but also a sixth day free with a 5-day purchase.

4. Allowing participants to join additional events up to the time of the event.
5. Scheduling enough events that everyone was made to feel an important part of the tournament.

I was so impressed with John McDermott and his operation in Reno that I hope to help organize a special league this year with point money going toward sending teams from Southern California to next year's Reno tournament.

Tony Bastanchury, Garden Grove, California

We're glad to hear that you're now home and on the mend, Tony. We add our salute to Cassie, Charley, Jolene and John. It takes people like them to keep our sport going and growing.

To all our Shufflin' Friends:

"We wish you the very best in 1992."

Long/Knox Win at Mann's Place

On Nov. 9 at Mann's Place, Evansport, Ohio, 18 teams battled for over $2400 in total prize money. Jim Long and Jerry Knox from Indiana took the first place prize, while Bud and Fritz Broka of Bourbon, Ind. took second. Paul Elliot and Terry Dowell from Warsaw, Ind., finished third, with Gale Gushman and Terry Wolfrum in fourth.

Mann's Place extends a special thanks to Dale Gushman for the promotion money added to the purse, and to all the players who helped make the tournament a big success.

Harvey's Place Hosts Thanksgiving Shootout

The East Coast shuffleboard gang gathered at Harvey's Place in Street, Maryland, on Nov. 15-17 for their annual Thanksgiving Shootout. This popular spot just north of Baltimore in the heart of the Chesapeake Bay provides the greatest hospitality and facilities for their shuffleboard guests. This tournament was no exception as Darlene and Harvey Comer welcomed their weekend guests.

Friday night was the draw partners. Leading the money winners to first place were Len Dell, Belcamp, Md. and Lindsay Hall, Baltimore, Md., long-time friends and shooters from Baltimore years back. Second place was taken by Wanda Farris, Dargan, Md., and Chuck King, Dover, Del., with third and final money spot going to another mixed team of Hilda Poling, Abbingdon, Md., and Jim McDaniels, Darlington, Md.

Saturday morning was time for the women's singles, while some weary-eyed men slept. Leading the women to first place was Wanda Farris, followed in second place by Judy Iseman, Chestertown, Md., with third and final money spot going to a local shooter, Debbie (Standiford) Schuler of nearby Conowingo. Wanda Farris left the tournament to return to Hagerstown to assist in the delivery of a new niece or nephew.

Saturday afternoon brought out the big teams for the bring partner event to be played on the four in-house boards. Leading the way to the money late in the evening were Len Dell and Chuck King. Second place was won by Dick Gorman, Wilmington, Del., and Poncho Prevento, Port Deposit, Md., with third place going to Johnny Gardner, Greensboro, Md. and Mark Grove, Millington, Md. Fourth place went to Sam Jones, Boonesboro, Md., and Lonzo Knight, Sharpsburg, Md. Fifth was taken by Herb Forester, Holmes, Pa., and Joe Williams, Ridley Park, Pa., with final money spot sixth place going to Jim McDaniels and Jim Wallace, Port Deposit.

Sunday at high noon was the scheduled time for the final of the four events -- the popular East Coast mixed doubles. Weights flew up and down the boards until Sunday night when the eventual winners emerged into first place and it was Judy Iseman and Len Dell taking most of the money. Joyce Pyle, Church Hill, Md., and Sam Jones took second place honors and third place went to first-time tournament money winner Boots Stewart, Aberdeen, Md. and Chuck King. Final money spot fourth place went to hostess Darlene Belcher and Dick Gorman.

"It was a great weekend for shuffleboard with Judy Iseman and Len Dell taking the overall point lead for the weekend and, of course, Len Dell did the 'hat trick' by being a winner in all three events. The next major weekend tournament is

Michigan Champions Crowned

While the turnout from other parts of the state was disappointing, a good delegation of shufflers from the Lansing/Detroit/Pontiac areas filled the prize pot in the Michigan Championships with nearly $7,000 and gave a crowd-pleasing performance to players and fans at Pasquale's Bar in Lansing over the Thanksgiving week-end. Four events were on the schedule.

Sher Blessing is the 1991 Women's Champion. Dana Gray is the Michigan Men's Champion.

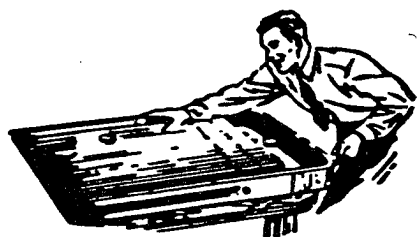

In the women's singles, Sher Blessing of Rochester, in her first-time-ever appearance in a major tournament, triumphed over the always competitive Delores McDonald of Lansing.

Local Dana Gray came out on top of a field of 22 players to take the crown in the men's singles championships. He beat out gentleman Bill Meyer of Sterling Heights, a skilled player and crafty sponsorship buyer. John Myles (better known as "One-Armed John") of Livonia took third place honors, with Lansing's Lee McDonald in fourth.

Bernie Sunde and Phil McGrew teamed up to take first place honors in the Michigan Championship Open Doubles.

In the open doubles, Bernie Sunde of Madison Heights and Phil McGrew of Union Lake teamed up to take top honors. They beat Lansing's dynamic duo, Lee McDonald and J.R. Lopez. Dana Gray added to his weekend bank roll by teaming up with Saginaw's Chris Passariello to take third place.

It was an action-packed Sunday afternoon with lots of keen competition in the mixed doubles event. Cassie Kern of Pontiac helped Phil McGrew add another first to his record. J.R. Lopez and Cecil Filko of Lansing took second place honors.

And Phil teamed up with Cassie Kern to take top honors in the Mixed Doubles Championships.

Total prize pot for the weekend was almost $7,000. Tournament director George Wilber thanks all the great volunteer help he had to make this annual event a success.

Western Maryland Action

The East Coast shufflers gathered in the Appalachian foothills in Funkstown, Maryland, at Glenn's Tavern on Nov. 22-24 for a weekend of shuffleboard fun. The weekend started off with glorious 70 degree weather and shirt sleeves, but by Sunday jackets were in order and 30 degree temperatures prevailed. ("Must mean the Winter Board Talk Tournament is on the way, as well as other notable holiday happenings," said Dick Gorman.)

Friday night was the draw partner event where 32 players teamed up for the double elimination tournament on the four in-house boards to compete for just over $1900. The local team of Sam Jones, Boonesboro, and Jim Snyder, Hagerstown, outlasted the rest of the field to take first place and over $1100 for the evening. Second place was won by Doug Fridley Jr., Waterloo, New York, and Vernon Rohrer, Hagerstown, Md., with third and final money spot to Jack Gardner, Greensboro, Md., and Lonzo Knight, Sharpsburg, Md.

Saturday morning was the designated for the bring partner event and quite a few of the better known teams showed up, but you won't see their names in this column this time (they went to the party bracket early, Dick reports). The local favorites showed up at the winner's table and for the second day in a row, Sam Jones took first place, only this time his partner was Lonzo Knight. Second place went to John Lukas, Millington, Md. (winner of the previous two bring partner events at Funkstown), and Mickey Mickens, Laurel, New Jersey. Third place was won by the mixed team of Steph McNeil, Rising Sun, Md., and Terry Gertz, Queenstown, Md. Fourth spot was taken by Len Dell, Belcamp, Md., and Chuck King, Dover, Del. Fifth place went to Johnny Gardner, Greensboro, Md. (Jack's son), and Bob Morrel of Philadelphia. Sixth and final money spot went to Tom Bernhard, Milford, Del., and Scratch Todd, Denton, Md.

On Sunday was the open singles and as the tournament ended, Lonzo Knight walked to the finish line with first place money. Second place money went to hard-fighting Len Dell, with third going to owner Glenn Arvin, Funkstown. Fourth and last of the money winners was Lindsay Hall, Baltimore, Md.

"It was an exceptionally nice weekend of shuffleboard fellowship and hospitality provided by Carmen and Glenn Arvin and their family and employees," said Dick. "This time Carmen was having a little medical problem (we hope by now that the doctors have been able to help her and she is on the mend for sure), so Linda Jones and "Peachy" Fravez spent many hours preparing a complete turkey dinner, including pumpkin pies, for all participants on Saturday and it was followed up on Sunday with southern fried chicken (biggest pieces I have seen in a long time). The food itself is worth more than the price of an entry fee at this popular shuffleboard establishment."

Point leaders for the weekend were Judy Iseman for the women and Lonzo Knight for the men. The next tournament is scheduled for Feb. 21-23. Call Glenn at 301-739-2559 for early registration as some events do sell out in advance.

More New York Action

The Geneva Moose Club in Geneva, New York, hosted its first ever New York State Interstate Shuffleboard Tournament on Nov. 9-10. It was the ninth overall ISL tourney and went over well as 56 shufflers took aim at $2,900 in prize monies for the two-day event.

Saturday was the draw partner event and saw Ken Vanzile Jr. from Pillars in Guilford, N.Y., win his first-ever ISL tournament by teaming up with Dave Fridley from the Dew Drop Inn, Waterloo, to win half of the $1,350 purse. Second spot went to Roy Schreiber from Baldwinsville Moose and first-time casher Dave Patrick of Pillars. Third place earnings went to another first-time casher, Bob Smith teaming up with Earl

1992 National Tour — Southern California Added

The success of the 1991 Grand Slam National Tour, highlighted by the best tournament we have ever promoted, the North American Championships in Reno, has us more excited about the prospects for the future than we have ever been at the beginning of a new year.

The 1992 Tour kicks off in the Los Angeles area, March 3-8, with the West Coast Classic. Greg McFarland and Joan Swenson are the Tournament Directors for this event which is being held at the Bicycle Club in Bell Gardens, California. In addition to having a first class facility, the Bicycle Club is also the world's largest card room.

The rest of the schedule remains pretty much the same, with the Michigan Open on Memorial weekend, May 20-25; The Board Talk Shufflers Reunion returns to the Holiday Inn, Kulpsville in the Philadelphia area, July 1-5; following that is the U.S. Open which also returns to last year's site, the Howard Johnson South Plaza Hotel in Austin, Texas; the 1992 tour will once again finish at the Sands Regency Hotel & Casino in Reno with the North American Championships, Nov. 9-15.

Several new classes of competition will make their debut on the 1992 Tour -- events for Division II and Division III players. This year's first event, the West Coast Classic, will feature a new format -- frames as opposed to points -- in the Division I, II and III and Team events, which will allow these events to be played two out of three instead of single game.

Frames is not actually a new idea. It is actually back to the future. The frames format was the most common method of play in the country from 1947 until about 1960, according to Sol Lipkin of American Shuffleboard.

Because it is our desire to promote tournaments of the highest possible quality, a couple of changes in policy will be in place for our 1992 events. It has been obvious to us in reviewing the financial side of tournament promotion that although we are closer to breaking even than we were in years past, there are going to have to be changes for us to continue this area of our business.

We have agonized over whether to increase the registration fee and have mixed feelings about doing so. There are many players who play only in the N.A.S.L. Team and we didn't think it was fair to them to pay the same registration fees as the person who is participating in three or four events. Keeping that in mind, we think that we have come up with a fair idea and have made the following changes, effective immediately.

There will be a $10.00 per player registration fee for the team event. The players who want to participate in the tournament's other events will be charged an additional $10.00, making the maximum registration fee $20.00.

This change will allow us to continue to improve the quality of our tournaments by enabling us to provide you with the type of high quality tournament staff that we received so many compliments on at our tournament in Reno.

Also, the burden put on our staff to process incomplete or incorrect entry forms grew to the extent that it became a full-time job. For the Reno tournament alone, we issued $1845 in checks to people who had overpaid. This is nothing compared to the number of letters, phone calls, and stamps we used trying to collect the balance owed by people who underpaid.

Therefore, effective immediately, our policy is that any entry form that is incomplete or incorrect shall be returned to the person who sent it. We will not hold a spot in the tournament for anyone without a properly filled out entry form. If you have any questions when you are filling out your entry form, please call us; we will be happy to assist you.

Qualifiers

We want to reiterate what we said in the September issue of The Board Talk in relation to this subject. Because of some of the problems last year -- qualifiers run for events that were already full, schedule conflicts with other tournaments, etc., spots in our tournaments will not be given to any winner of a qualifying tournament unless prior written approval has been provided by The Shuffleboard Federation, Inc.

We are very interested in helping anyone who wants to run a qualifier in their area. If you would like to run a qualifier in your bar for any of our 1992 events, please contact us as soon as possible.

While we are on this subject, we would like to recognize the excellent work of Tulsa Shuffleboard Association founders Cliff Goff and E.R. Smith. Through the use of a series of qualifiers, two six-person teams from the Tulsa area were able to win a trip -- including air fare, room, and entry fee -- to the Reno tournament.

This is the type of promotions we would like to see every league involved in. We are looking forward to the day when regional and national competitions for N.A.S.L. league players will be a reality.

We would love to help you promote these types of ideas in your area. For more information on the N.A.S.L. program, qualifiers, having a sanctioned tournament in your area, or how to purchase any of our world class shuffleboard products, call The Shuffleboard Federation, Inc. at 313-380-9300.

Durgan, both from the Dew Drop Inn. Taking home fourth place cash were the familiar in-the-money pair, John Canino from Baldwinville, and Marv Smith from Hackettstown, N.J., shooting for Amy's Checkered Flag of Waterloo.

Sunday brought 14 teams to challenge for over $1,150 in cash prizes. Finishing in the winner's circle was the tough-to-beat team of Dick Losee and Russ Reynolds from Sherburne, N.Y. Earning second place winnings were Earl Durgan and Doug Fridley Jr. from the Dew Drop Inn. Third went to the "famous" husband-wife team of Arlow and Jane Johnson from Jordan, N.Y. And taking home fourth place monies were the local Geneve Moose favorites, Sherry Bates and Jim Perry, shooting in his first-ever ISL event.

"Geneve Moose is to be commended for their fine buffet both days of zitas and meatballs, baked beans, escalloped potatoes, dogs and sauce, chips and dip, and pepperoni-cheese and crackers available all day long," reports Doug Fridley Jr. "Thanks, chef Al Tauteroff!"

Dopey & Mopey Stars of Lafayette Inn Draw Partner

December 7, the day that will live in the memories of a nation, and the state of Delaware whose birthday is Dec. 7, and in the memories of Dopey and Mopey. The latter event took place at Lafayette Inn, Rising Sun, Maryland, at the monthly first Saturday of the month draw partner event. Dopey and Mopey were Mopey Hasson, Perryville, Md., and Dave (D---) Shewbridge, Wilton, Md., who took first place and most of the marbles. Second place went to Joe Williams, Ridley Park, Pennsylvania, and Jim Yank Sr. of Philadelphia. Third place went to Carol Hampton, Charlestown, Md., and John Sinclair, Rising Sun.

The day was capped off with a hot buffet for all participants provided by hosts Pat and Nelson Renzo. "We meet at this popular 4-board establishment the first Saturday of every month with anywhere from 25 to 40 players joining in. Come join the fun at 1 p.m. sharp," invites Dick Gorman.

Mixed Doubles at Lafayette Inn

The second in a series of four mixed doubles tournaments at Lafayette Inn, Rising Sun, Maryland, was held on Dec. 8 on the four in-house boards. The bidding was cautious on the many good and potential winning teams, reports Dick Gorman. As the day progressed, Pat and Nelson Renzo treated all participants to a fried chicken, mashed potatoes, and string bean dinner, giving the holiday stomachs an early start. Meanwhile, back to the shooting...

Traveling from Western Maryland, Wanda Farris, Dargan, and Lonzo Knight, Sharpsburg, teamed up to take first place over second place finishers Mary Wagner, Milford, Delaware, and John Lukas, Millington, Md. Third place went to Judy Iseman, Chestertown, Md., and Len Dell, Bell Camp, Md., with fourth and final money going to Rita Yank, Philadelphia, and Johnny Gardner, Greensboro, Md.

The next mixed doubles tournament in this four-tournament series is scheduled for Jan. 5. Call 410-658-9075.

AMATEUR DRAW

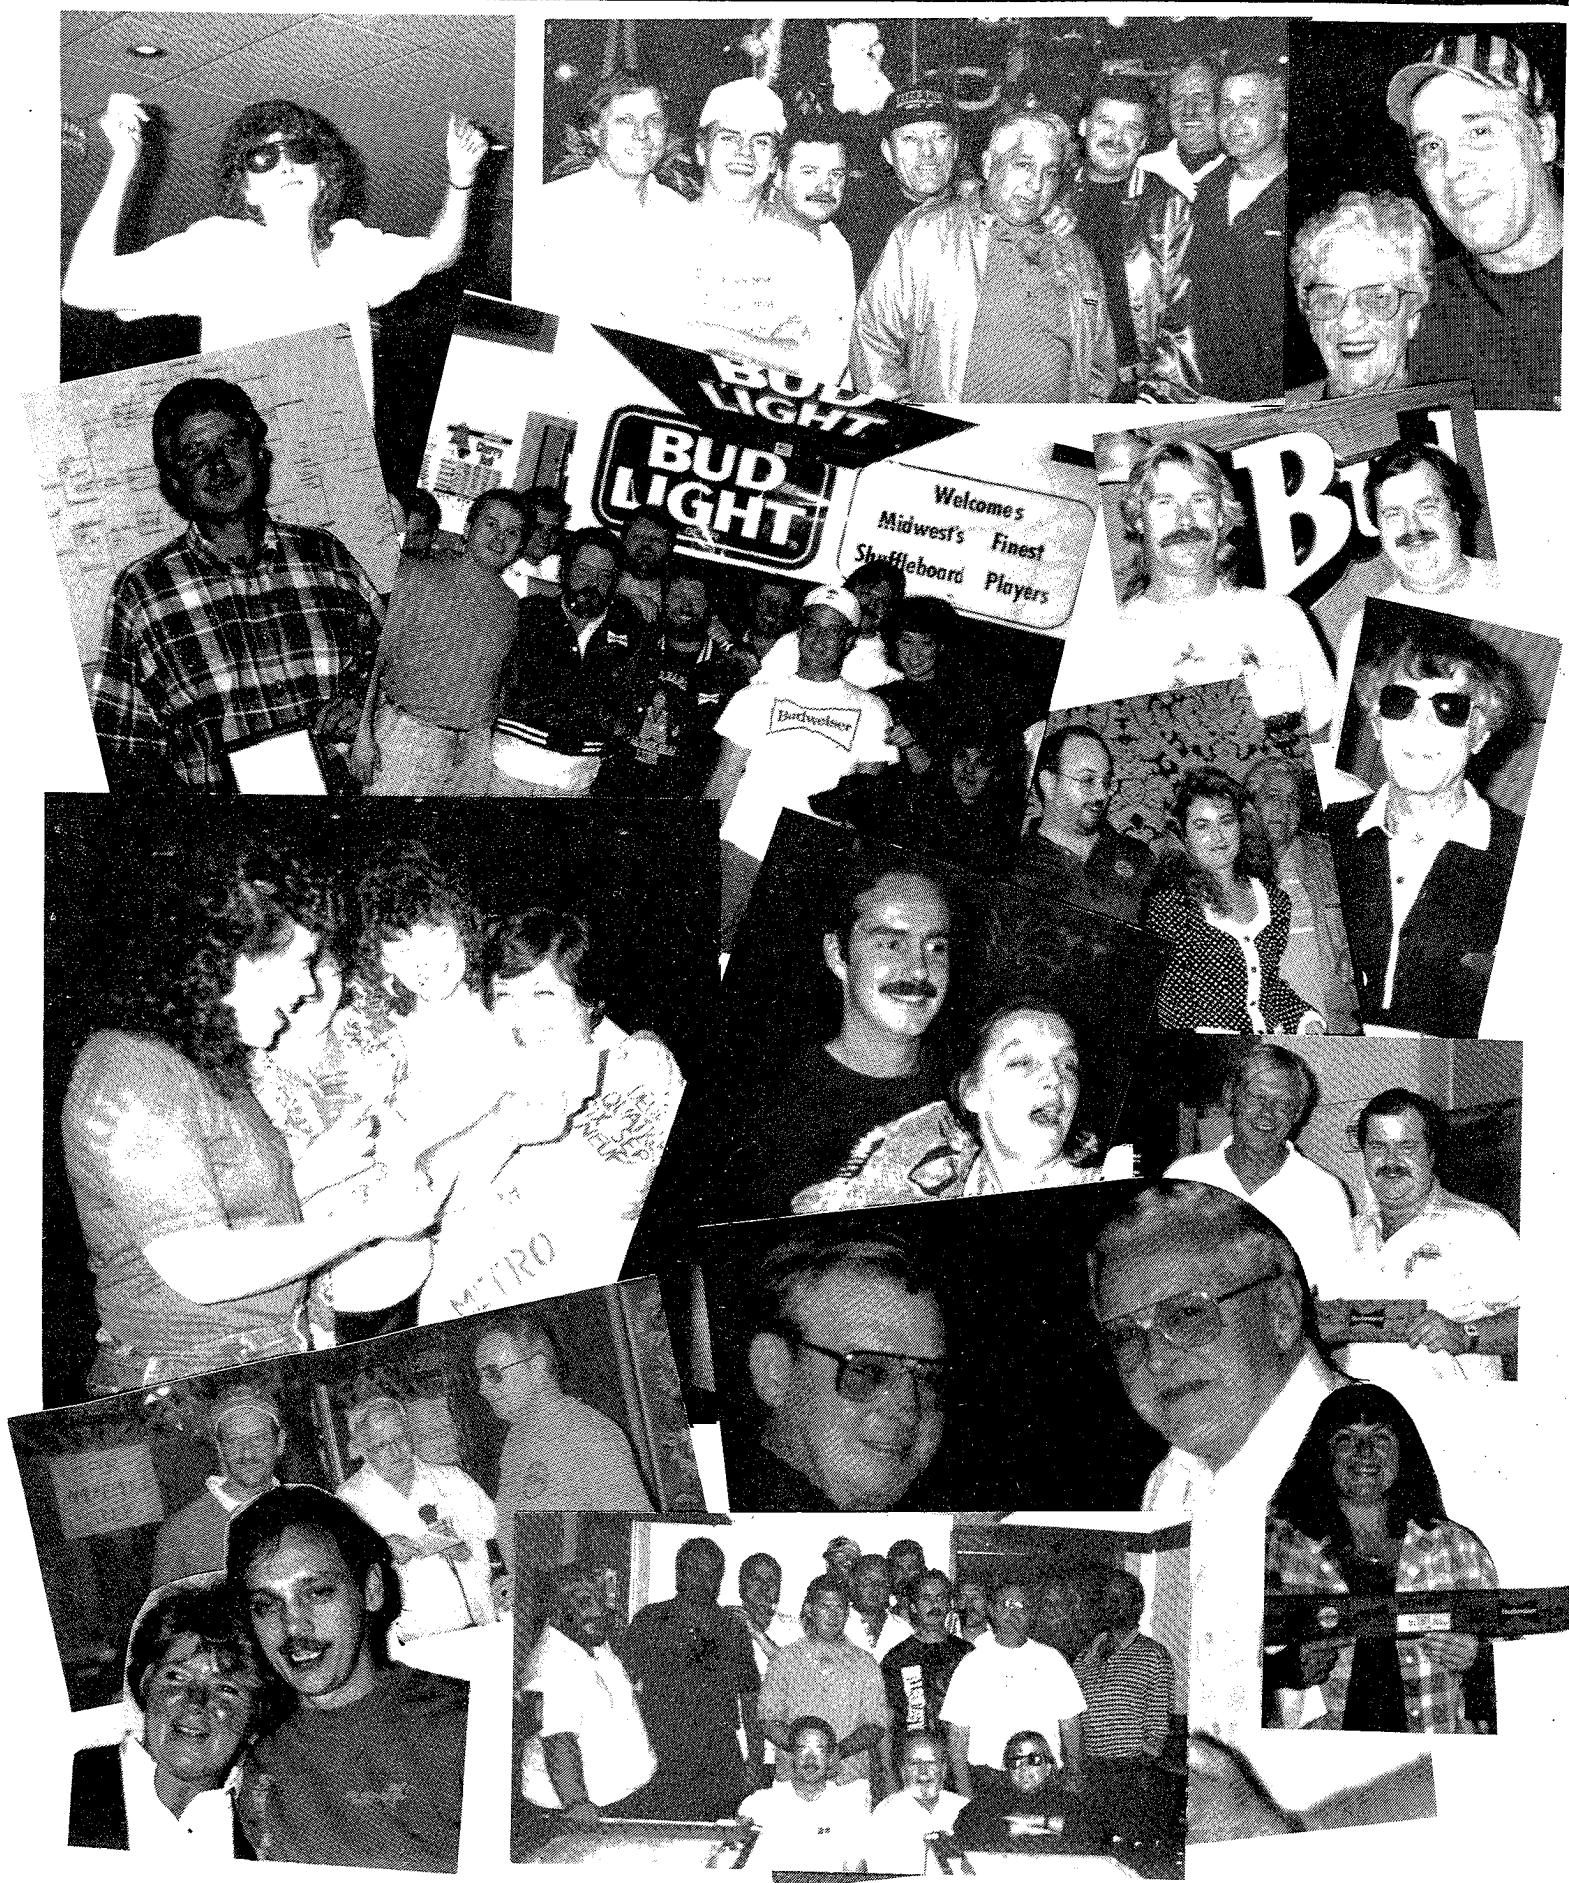

We apologize to the players in this event for accidentally wiping off the bracket board before we had a chance to record the results. The only information we have been able to piece together is that Woody Cockrum and Charlie Busch took first and Betty Brantley and her partner finished second.

We would very much like to recognize the teams in second through sixth place. If the participants in the Amateur Draw could take a minute to let us know where they finished, we would greatly appreciate it. The results will be published in our monthly advertising.
