November 2005 Tournament Results

Dear Shuffleboard Players,

As an experiment, I have decided to compile a monthly issue in PDF format from the results I have posted on the web. Please feel free to print this out and pass it amongst your non-internet connected shuffleboard friends at your shuffleboard venues. Print only the pages you are interested in or if you please, the whole issue to share. I will attach a few flyers for January events that you may also choose to print. I'll append them to the end so you don't have to print them.

This November issue contains results from all the tournaments on the national schedule for November 2005. I post all the material that is sent to me, pictures, stories, all the participants and the winners. If you see at tournament report with no story or photos and you can provide them, I will be glad to update the web site page for that tournament. Unlike a print issue, web pages can be updated and changed at any time. Website URLs are listed with each result.

This issue is being delivered late in December mainly because I didn't think of creating it until recently. I have been focused on work obligations that have kept me busy until now. I hope to finish up and print and ship some copies to the Houston Holiday Open to be distributed there.

The December issue will be easy to complete in comparison and will be started immediately upon completion of the November 2005 issue. There aren't many tournaments through out the month of December, but many, on New Year's Eve. I currently have the results from all but one of the tournaments that are completed at this time.

I gave some thought to how to lay this out. I decided to do the most cost effective thing for those of you that will be doing the printing on your home printers. For example, page 3 has three tournaments on it. The reason they were grouped together? Because they fit on one page. Most tournaments will be one page or more (several state tournaments in this issue) and we'll see how things work out. There will be a bit of white space in this issue as I wanted to get it sent out by the end of Christmas Day and didn't want to fiddle with it all day.

Suggestions welcome. Articles or stories welcome. HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Mixed Tournament
Fir Cone Tavern
Shelton, WA

Ernie's

By Dwayne Dibley

Logic tells us that the very weekend after a record turn out at the NASC in Reno would not be a good time to hold a tournament. However, Ernie's Fir Cone has a history of doing what appears on the surface as a bad idea. Why mess with history? Why mess with success? The 20th Annual Mixed Doubles at Ernie's Fir Cone was just that, a historical success.

While all tournament at Ernie's Fir Cone are a success, regardless of when they are held, there is a historical mystery that plagues all these tournaments. Why do the boards mysterically change prior to every tournament? Explanations range from the strange to the bazaar; The tide is out or in, the weather changed, board pixies, aliens, and yes, even big foot. Well, this year we solved the mystery. Why we even caught this phenomenon on film.

Any questions? As with all rural legends, the picture is a little fuzzy. But, if you look close you'll see Northwest Hall of Famer Dick Doak with a 4 foot tall open end wrench he calls the "tweaker".

Friday night A-B Draws have been a favorite event at Ernie's Fir Cone with the locals since the start of the rating system. That's because, more often that not, a local wins this event. This year was no exception, Ernie's Fir Cone local Joe Smith carried Mel Hohn to first place in this single elimination draw.

Not only do locals usually win the Friday night Draws, they fare well in the main events as well. This year 5 of the 6 people in the top three places were locals. The 2005 Ernie's Fir Cone Mixed Doubles Champions are Paulette McKenney and Loren Lampley. Yes, both locals.

Paulette, back form numerous victories at Reno and Loren fresh out of retirement beat Michelle Foran and local Dick Doak in the finals. Third place went to new player Penny Jorgensen and old timer Carl Roush.
