

Frisco Eddie's Revenge: The Return

A Series by Balboa Ron Schweikert

(Editor's Note: Author Balboa Ron is back and doing much better than he expected after his hip replacement. You may even see him in Reno without his walker and perhaps even without his cane! Ah, the miracle of modern medicine! You can still let him know you wish him well: Ron Schweikert, 1140 Coral Desert Drive, Las Vegas, NV 89123. Now let's join Eddie and Shelli on their Florida honeymoon....)

Eddie and Shelli quickly changed into their bathing suits and headed down to the beach. It was late afternoon and the area in front of their resort was just about deserted. When they reached the beach, they found the sand to be pure white and very soft. As they got closer to the water, though, the sand hardened. This would explain the beach cars they saw driving along there earlier.

As they were about to enter the water, Eddie said: "You're in for a surprise, honey. The water here is a lot different than the beaches in Northern California. Come on -- let's start running and go straight in."

And that they did. To Shelli's surprise, the water was very warm and very comfortable. There were light waves and the water was crystal clear. She shouted out: "Hey, sweetheart, this is what I've been waiting for all my life!" They laughed and played and swam for a long time. They were feeling the love, joy, serenity and peace they had needed for so long. This fragment in time, and the little spot they occupied on the planet for this flicker in eternity would belong to them -- for always. They were lost in the synergy that lifted them.

In fact, it was now turning dark and they were in for another special surprise. As they looked to the east, the moon was now rising over the crest of the ocean, and it was spectacular because it appeared to be about 10 times its normal size! As they gazed at that moon, they were truly joined as one, and this was their moment...and only theirs.

Everything was so wonderful that they couldn't resist a long embrace. Then Eddie moved around behind her, and before she knew it, he very deftly removed the top of her swim suit! Shelli just giggled at that, and made her own move by swiftly pulling down Eddie's trunks. There was only one more piece of clothing left -- and Shelli whispered, "Take it off, lover."

They proceeded to make some very tender, but then very passionate love in the shoulder-high water. It went on and on, until they were both completely exhausted. After it was finished, Eddie said: "Now THAT was something different -- and something beautiful, honey!" Shelli responded with: "Yes, it was, darling, it truly was."

They had made plans for the evening so Eddie said: "We better get going, sweetheart, or we'll be late for our dinner." They both turned then to start back. They noticed that there were a lot of lights, and a lot of people out now in front of the resort. Eddie whispered to Shelli: "You better slip me my swim trunks, baby. We wouldn't want to give all those people up there a thrill - Ha!"

Shelli grabbed him by the arm then and said: "Quit your kidding, funny man -- you've got the suits, right?" He replied: "No -- seriously, no I don't." She believed him then and they both started to make a mad scramble around the area in hopes of retrieving them. After a thorough sweep of the area, they came up empty-handed!

They gave up then, and both of them looked at all those people who were moving about -- between them and the resort AND their suite! Eddie turned to Shelli, and with his best imitation of a famous old voice, said: "Well, now look at the fine mess you've gotten us into!"

Texas Leader of the "Pack" at Southwest Open

If there had been a prize for attendance at the SW Open, Texas would have gone home with another one! Of the 272 participants from 18 states and Canada, 82 were from Texas. Next came the host state of Oklahoma with 74. Missouri was third with 19, closely followed by Nebraska with 17 and Indiana with 15. Arizona, with 12 participants, came in 6th, with Michigan and Washington tied for 7-8 with 10 each. The remainder were in single digits -- but wait until next year!

Points Champions:

Dan Hitt of Washington was the MVP and -1's point champion. Terry Dowell led the 0's, Carlos Guzman topped the 1's, and there was a 3-way tie for the 2's: Tony Pelton, Mike Keevil and Jeff Womble. In the 3's and 4's, the winner was Lynn Shepard, who beat out his wife!

Congratulations to all!
