I partnered up with Lorraine Olson to run my first tournament back in February, 2001. Since then I have run over a dozen tournaments. For the most part, each successive tournament got easier and easier to run. This tournament was plagued by problems and mishaps, and was, by far, the most stressful of them all. Here is just a small sample of the problems we ran into 1) At the last minute we were informed that overnight RV parking would not be available. 2) In the warm up event (A/B) after 3 columns of the chart had been run, Peas plunged into its most disasterous bug to date. The chart was wiped out. Within 15 minutes I was able to put things back together, but it was a bit scary (since we, at that point, had no backups, digitially or any other way). 3) Between Lorraine and I we had 5
