

Tourney Talk (continued from page 3)

went to the team of Len Dell, Belcamp, Md., and Chuck King, with another local team, Sam Jones and Lonzo Knight, Sharpsburg, Md., in fourth. Another Bay Country Moose team of Tom Bernhard, Milford, Del., and Johnny Gardner, Greensboro, finished in fifth place, with the final money spot taken by Johnny's dad, Jack Gardner, and birthday boy, Chick Legg, Stevensville, Md.

Twenty-one players were on hand to shoot the final event, an open singles, on Sunday. That evening, the winner emerged in the form of Lonzo Knight, beating out second place finisher Mickey Mickens, Mt. Laurel, New Jersey. Third place went to Doug Fridley Jr. of Waterloo, New York, and fourth to Bob Morrel, newcomer from Philadelphia. Lonzo Knight was top point person for the weekend.

"It was a great weekend at Glenn's Tavern and all that can should seriously consider coming to the next major event on Nov. 22-24," said Dick. Call Glenn Arvin at 301-739-2559 to reserve your spot. See ad in this issue.

Perry/Broka Win Bourbon Tourney

Bob Perry of Illinois and Buddy Broka of Indiana teamed up to take the title of the 1991 fall doubles tournament at the American Legion in Bourbon, Indiana. To win the event, they downed Bobby Voorhis of Indiana and Glen Davidson of Oklahoma two in a row after being downed themselves by Debbie Voorhis and Cheryl Collins. Lee McDonald and J.R. Lopez of Lansing, Michigan, took third place honors, with Hoosiers Jim Long and Jerry Knox in fourth. Thirty-three teams participated in this annual event.

"It is a great tourney that's been going on for 35 years," said Glen Davidson. "If not the best in the U.S.A., it still is a great one and to finish it in one day is what some promoters would call a miracle. Mike Koontz and the staff do a great job, and we all enjoyed the great chicken and meat loaf by the ladies of Bourbon."

Davidson/Broka Win Stober's Mixed Doubles

The mixed doubles championships held at Stober's Lounge in Lansing, Michigan, on Sept. 12 was won by Glen Davidson of Oklahoma and Fritz Broka of Indiana. Bobby and Debbie Voorhis of Indiana took second place honors, with Madge Goff of Oklahoma and Lee McDonald of Michigan in third place.

"This is one of my first in awhile to play in a mixed doubles and I had a wonderful time," reports Glen. "Thanks to George and Donna Wilber for their hospitality. It was a real pleasure for Madge and me to meet their daughter and grandson. A beautiful family."

"We're off to play in Toledo at Jug's Tavern. It's still fun to play in the bar room atmosphere when you have good directors who keep it going," he said.

Manders/Sullivan Win at Edison

A draw partner doubles event attracted 20 participants to the Old Edison Inn, Edison, Washington, on Sept. 14. After a long day and night of tough competition, Mark Sullivan of Bow and Jim Manders of Sequim took two out of three in the final match over Cindy Mehler, Bellingham, and Paul Major, Lynnwood, to win the largest share of the $1300 pot, with third place going to Mike Waters, Tacoma, and Keith "Lynch" Knutsen, Bow. Finishing just out of the money in fourth were Danny McKinnon, Marysville, and Scott Blau, Samish Island. "Lynch" was also one of the two winners of subscriptions to The Board Talk, donated by the tournament organizers along with other door prizes.

"Despite the relatively small turnout, a lot of top-notch players competed, and the drawing produced 10 very evenly-matched teams, which made for good games," reports director Phil DePree. "The participants expressed appreciation for the great chow (66 pounds of spaghetti and about 10 gallons of seafood chowder were consumed during the all-day buffet), the interesting door prizes, and the super condition of the boards."

Special appreciation goes to such quality out-of-town shooters as Manders, Mehler, Major, Waters, McKinnon, and Buddy Lindh, who drove many miles to take a chance in a draw-partner format with heavy local participation. Hosts Jim and Roxy DePree also thank the cooks: barmaid Rosie Robinette who somehow found time to prepare the spaghetti, and champion oyster-shucker "Diz" Schimke for his always-great chowder.

"Everybody said, 'let's do it again next year,' so we will," said Phil. The Old Edison Inn also holds an annual mixed doubles event the first weekend in March.

Lampley/Anderson Winners of Corner Tavern Tourney

The 3rd Annual "Pre-Season" Doubles Tournament at the Corner Tavern in Bow, Washington, was another big success. (continued on page 7)

Come Celebrate

with us a gala

"Thanks for Shuffleboard"

Weekend

NOV. 22-24

Nov. 22 - DRAW PARTNERS
6:30 p.m. $10 entry

Nov. 23 - BRING PARTNER
10 a.m. $25 team

Nov. 24 - OPEN SINGLES
Noon $20 entry

Call Glenn or Carmen, 301-739-2559

GLENN'S TAVERN
2 W. Walthmore Street, Box 488
Funkstown, MD 21734