

Bourbon Legion Fall Open Doubles

"Break a leg" is the way people in theatre wish each other good luck when opening a show. No one had to tell Bourbonite Gary Anglin to "break a leg" before the open doubles started Saturday October 1st, because he'd already done it the week before!

While Gary may tell a rousing story involving a trapeze and several female accomplices, I have an eye-witness account that this was a dance floor related accident complicated by excessive birthday celebration.. Gary's Birthday, Gary's celebration (Gary's story)

Well, Gary and partner Dave Vondron got to celebrate again after powering their way through the winners bracket of the open doubles to take the top prize.

Placing 2nd was the Michigan team of sweethearts Steve Auten and Carrie Siple (formerly Cottrell). They defeated several powerhouse teams before being stopped in the first game of the finals by Anglin and Vondron. This was such a cute picture I just had to post it.

Placing 3rd were Jim Long & Glen Ingram and 4th went to Deb Voohris & Mary Brown. Mary and Deb gave Bobby V. and Ricky Royal their 2nd loss before being defeated themselves by Carrie and Steve.

Other participants were:

Bobby Voohris & Rick Royal
Terry Dowell & Larry Brown
Scott Smith & Jerry Siebert
Dave Boaz & Rick Stocker
Jerry Hershman & Bill Kane
Mike Koontz & Dennis Kinsey

Brian Collins & Jerry Knox

Bourbon Legion Fall Open Singles

2nd Steve Auten-1st Jim Long -3rd Larry Brown

It was a case of age and guile winning out over youth and innocence in the open singles. Ok, Steve Auten isn't exactly an innocent, but you catch my drift. National hall of fame player Jim Long battled back through the losers bracket to double dip Steve for the open singles title.

The Sunday evening die-hard crowd was treated to some of the best shooting, worst shooting, best played and most baffling strategy ever combined for two games. I'm pretty sure Jim Long will say I didn't understand his logic because I'm only a woman, but several of the male watchers were confused also!

Congratulations to Jim Long on another great win! Web Page
