

Bobby and Debbie Voorhis hosted 18 teams in a Pro/Am (Add to 1) on this, the ides of March. Brian Collins did most of the sponsor sale with Steve Hart taking a brief turn to help. It was good to see Steve out and about despite his illness. Oh and I almost forgot. They pulled the fake auction trick and Ernie and Glenda Dincoff. It was enjoyed by everyone... except them :-)

After a small glitch (not enough peas in the jug) the tournament got started. The bar provided a huge pot of meat balls and another huge pot of spicy wienies for all the patrons. Thanks Bob and Deb!

An extra added diversion for the afternoon was Bourbonites Mike Koontz, Ann Harrell, Gary Neff, Gary Anglin and Tyler Lozier being able to watch their high school Alma mater win the semi-state 1A basketball game to advance to the state finals. (The game was not on TV up north)
